

On July 25, 2007 the ICP Unit conducted a raid of two local businesses with the Investigation Service Company (ISC). The ISC represents the Motion Picture Association of America and the Recording Industry Association of America. The raid resulted in one Unlawful Carry of a Weapon Arrest, 2 handguns and a set of brass knuckles seized. One suspect was filed on for the offense of "labeling," selling counterfeit CD's and DVD's and the other suspect faces a civil lawsuit for selling counterfeit Nikes. The counterfeit shoes were going to be destroyed by ISC and the counterfeit CD's and DVD's were placed in the police property room. The raids took place in the Buckner and Peavy area.
